Turin, June 11. N. S.

THE greater part of the General Officers of the Imperial Regiments are arrived here, and all the Troops, both Horſe and Foot, are on their March this way. Yeſterday General Martini's Regiment of Horſe paſſed through this Place on their way to Orbaſſan, where all the Imperial Cavalry are to be encamped, before they advance towards the Mountains; their whole Infantry will alſo be ſpeedily at their reſpective Rendezvous at Montcallier, Montenard and St. Balein. We have Advice, that the Pruſſian Troops refuſed to March out of their Winter Quarters in the Mantuan, upon ſome Differences between them and the Imperial Commiſſaries, of which, as ſoon as the Britiſh and Dutch Miniſters here were informed, they wrote both to the General who Commands thoſe Troops, and to Marſhal Dawn, to endeavour to end the Diſpute; ſo that the opening the Campaign may not be retarded for want of that Body of Troops. All his Royal Highneſs's Horſe are to be encamped within few Days at Pancallie, his Foot being long ſince upon the Frontiers towards Suza, Coni and the Valley of Aoſt. His Royal Highneſs hath diſpatched General Schulenburg, who is to Command the Troops in the Valley of Aoſt, from hence, upon Advice that the Enemies on that Frontier had made ſome Motion; but that Movement is looked upon as made only to take Poſſeſſion of ſome Poſts which they March into at the entrance of every Campaign. Marſhal Dawn is expected here within few Days from Milan. We have had ſo great Rains of late in theſe Parts, that his Royal Highneſs, with the Court, are returned hither from the Venerie ſooner than they were expected.

Turin, June 18. N. S. Laſt Sunday Marſhal Dawn arrived here from Milan. All the German Troops which are to compoſe our Army, are arrived at their reſpective Quarters; but the March of the Pruſſian Troops is countermanded upon ſome new Difficulties about the Payment of what is due to thoſe Troops. The Britiſh and Dutch Envoys have interpoſed in this Affair, and have prevailed with the Marſhal to leave the deciſion of the Diſpute to them; and an Expreſs is diſpatched to inform the Commanding Officer of this Reſolution; ſo that it is hoped theſe Troops will immediately March. Laſt Week a Courier from Paris paſſed through this Place for Rome, to obtain the Pope's Permiſſion for the Duke of Berry to Marry the Duke of Orleans's Daughter.

Genoa, June 15. N. S. The Regiment of General Brown, and that of General Ecks, arrived at Vado on the 10th Inſtant, which were embarked immediately on Board the Tranſports hired for that purpoſe; as were alſo the German and Italian Recruits the Day following, beſides three hundred and fifty Horſe for remounting of the Earl of Rochford's Dragoons. All theſe Troops being on Board, the Fleet ſet Sail on Thurſday the 12th Inſtant, with a brisk and favourable Gale of Wind, the Body of the Fleet, with the Imperial Regiments and Italian Recruits, bearing towards Sardinia; and the Earl of Rochford's Regiment of Horſe, with the Imperial Recruits, towards Barcelona, under the Convoy of two Men of War. This Diviſion was made upon the Advice the Admirals received of the Enemy's being gone to make a Deſcent in Sardinia, with eight Gallies under the Command of the Duke de Turſis, and a Body of two thouſand Men under the Command of Lieutenant-General Joſeph Armenduras, and two Brigadiers. The laſt Letters from Corſica bring us Advice, that thoſe Gallies lay at an Anchor in Porto-Vecchio in that Iſland, from whence they had ſent a Felucca, with ſome of the Natives of Sardinia, to get Intelligence, who were taken and carried into Cagliari; upon which the Viceroy immediately ordered a Body of eight hundred Horſe to Patrole all along the Coaſt, and another of about one thouſand Foot to repair to the Places moſt ſuſpected, laying a ſtrict Command upon them to Fire upon every armed Perſon, and to diſperſe all Aſſemblies that were met together in order to take up Arms. Two of the Pope's Gallies arrived here on the 11th, being come to fetch a conſiderable Sum of Mony which this Republick has lent them at Intereſt, whereof the Principal is to be repaid in 4 Years. Yeſterday two of this Republick's Gallies returned hither from Corſica, with Monſieur Phillippo Cataneo, late Governor of that Iſland, he being ſucceeded by the Marquis de Reverole.

Vienna, June 18. N. S. On the 9th Inſtant the Emperor reviewed at Schonborn the Regiment of Roccavion, on its March from Hungary to the Upper Rhine; it conſiſted of one thouſand Horſe compleat, well mounted, and in very good order. On the 11th his Imperial Majeſty removed with the Court to the New Favourite. Yeſterday they went to Laxemburg for the Diverſion of Hawking, where the great Faulkner prepared a curious Artificial Firework for their Entertainment; and this Day the whole Court returned to the Favourite. Monſieur Urbich, the Envoy of the Czar of Muſcovy, returned lately from Poland to this City. He paſſed through Hungary in his way hither, and had a Conference with Prince Ragotski, to whom he complained of the Reception of his Czariſh Majeſty's Enemies into his Service: That Miniſter had alſo Inſtructions to mediate a Peace between the Emperor and the Hungarians, and was ordered to make ſome Propoſals of Accommodation. Prince Ragotski and Prince Berezeni acquainted him with the Terms upon which they would enter into a Treaty, which conſiſted in the ſame Points as their former Demands; that his Imperial Majeſty ſhould grant a general Pardon; that the Fundamental Laws of the Kingdom ſhould be eſtabliſhed, the quiet Poſſeſſion of their Eſtates ſecured, and ſuch as have been already Confiſcated be reſtored to their Poſterity. Monſieur Urbich, at his Departure, took with him a Quarter Maſter General, as a Deputy from the Malecontents for the further Explanation of theſe Articles; but at Presburg this Deputy was ſeized and impriſoned by the Command of Mareſchal Palfi, under pretext that he had no Paſsport. Monſieur Urbich highly reſents the Behaviour of General Palfi on this occaſion, for arreſting a Gentleman that had put himſelf under his Protection, and hath delivered a Memorial to the Emperor upon this Subject, in which he alſo inſiſts on a Demand, that the Emperor ſhould give the Czar the Title of Majeſty. The Court hath given an Anſwer in Writing to that Memorial, containing in Subſtance, That the Emperor is very much ſurprized, that the Miniſter of the Czar of Muſcovy ſhould make any Overtures of Accommodation, or receive any Propoſals from the Malecontents, without the Participation of this Court; and that this Officer, who came as Deputy from the Hungarians, not being a Domeſtick of that Miniſter, they think he hath no manner of right to protect him. We do not hear that there is any Anſwer returned to that part of the Memorial relating to his Maſter's Demand of the Title of Majeſty. Prince Eugene having deſired that two Regiments of Horſe and four Battalions of Foot be forthwith ſent from the Upper Rhine to the Low Countries, this Court hath conſented that the Regiments of Prince Emanuel
